Educationist Sunil G. Karve shares his views on education with the President

Sunil G. Karve, founder, MET League of Colleges, recently had a private audience with the President of India, Pratibha Devi Singh Patil, at Rashtrapati Bhavan, New Delhi. Karve discussed his vision for the future of education in India. Karve also apprised the President of the developments at MET over the last two decades. Of particular significance was the conferring of the Special Consultative Status by the United Nations (ECOSOC) on MET, (the only educational entity to be bestowed this rare honour), which has now found its place in the Official Archives of the President at the Rashtrapati Bhavan. MET recently announced admissions for Diploma Programmes in business management, a Specialised and Advanced Diploma in management, a certificate course in Management Fundamentals, English & Comm.
