

ADMISSION POLICY

Introduction

Masters in Management Studies (MMS) is a two-year full-time management course at Mumbai University. The MMS Programme has a two-tier structure: it consists of a core curriculum, a summer internship, and elective courses. The first year is committed to developing business fundamentals through compulsory courses spanning the areas of economics, finance, marketing, operations, systems, organizational behavior, human resources, strategy, and public policy. The second year offers a plethora of electives in different functional areas that students can choose based on their desired area of pursuit.

The Admission policy is based on guidelines given by Mumbai University for selecting appropriate students for MMS. Please note that Mumbai University reserves the right to modify the shortlisting criteria for final selection at any point in time.
