

The Shivering Day & The Shimmering Sky

Travelling; It Leaves You Speechless, Then Turns You Into A Storyteller.

So here i come, in the arm of mountains, in the lap of Ganga & in the midst of nature. What an incredible place it is..! The beauty of nature can be seen in every corner of Shivpuri. Everything is giving a feel of the heaven. The resplendent Sun is playing hide and seek with the suave clouds. Though it's 1st January, 2016, the weather is so cold that it's freezing us totally!

And the adventure begins...the mountains are calling and i must go. The next day began with rock climbing & rappelling. i am excited and thrilled. Boosting my adrenaline to prepare myself. Let's rock on...!! As i started climbing, my fingers got a bit sore, feeling almost like a bruise. Initially i thought - this is not my cup of tea, but somehow i managed to reach the peak. Now rappelling....yeah...!! Taking efforts, i started moving down the steep rock, pushing my feet against its surface and sliding down a rope and finally i landed on the ground. What a feeling of relaxation...!!

Snowy breezes pinching me and making me freeze and we are going for river rafting in the late afternoon. The very thought of it is creating a vibration in the nerves. How exciting is it going to be? Well i step into the water followed by a training session. And trust me, the Ganga is so chilled. One can surely feel the chunks of the ice in it. The adventure begins and rafting requires a lot of strength to drive the paddles. The strong current and flow of the water creates an exhilarating excitement in the layers of the heart. It's pretty difficult to balance. Our raft almost sank a few times in the icy cold water because of the continuous splashing and the electrifying waves. My body has started shivering like hell and i can feel the sensation slipping out of it. I must say a pretty thrilling experience...!!

Such a beautiful experience indeed. One of the best trip of my life, which gave me loads of delightful memories. I really want to make memories all over the world. I must say go and pack your bags and discover Shivpuri, if you never have, before this. Indulge in an array of adventure activities with your friends and family for a truly blissful experience.

So are you guys ready to find some beautiful place to get lost in? ;)
